Exempt Reporting Advisers

Exempt Reporting Advisers are investment adviser firms that are not required to register as investment advisers because they meet registration exemptions under sections 203(l) and 203(m) of the Advisers Act of 1940. These advisers are required to submit reports to the SEC or jurisdictions. These reports are filed using Form ADV, but do not include all items contained in Form ADV that a registered adviser must complete. Below are the regulators with which a report is filed.
